Re:

United States v. Robert A. Fafard Criminal Docket No. 04-40027-FDS

Dear Mr. Black:

This letter sets forth the Agreement between the United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts ("the U.S. Attorney") and your client, Robert A. Fafard ("Defendant"), in the above-captioned case. The Agreement is as follows:

1. Change of Plea

At the earliest practicable date, Defendant shall plead guilty to the Indictment in the above-referenced case which charges him with one Count of Attempted Coercion and Enticement, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2422(b); two Counts of Transportation of Child Pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2252(a); and one Count of Possession of Child Pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §2252(a)(4). Defendant expressly and unequivocally admits that he in fact knowingly, intentionally and willfully committed the crimes charged in the Indictment, and is in fact guilty of those offenses.

2. Penalties

Defendant faces the following maximum penalties:

Count One: A maximum term of imprisonment of thirty years, and a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of five years; a fine not to exceed $250,000, a supervised release term for not more than five years; and a $100 special assessment.

Each of Counts Two and Three: A maximum term of imprisonment of twenty years, and a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of five years; a fine not to exceed $250,000, a supervised release term for not more than three years; and a $100 special assessment.

Count Four: A maximum term of imprisonment of ten years, and no mandatory minimum term of imprisonment; a fine not to exceed $250,000, a supervised release term for not more than three years; and a $100 special assessment.

Defendant shall also forfeit to the United States the property set forth in the forfeiture allegation of the Indictment.

3. Sentencing Guidelines

The sentence to be imposed upon Defendant is within the discretion of the sentencing Court, subject to the statutory maximum penalties set forth above, and the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act and the United States Sentencing Guidelines promulgated thereunder, as modified by United States v. Booker and United States v. Fanfan, 125 S.Ct. 738, 2005 WL 50108 (January 12, 2005). In imposing the sentence, the Court must consult and take into account the United States Sentencing Guidelines, along with the other factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553(a).

The parties will take the following positions¹ at sentencing with respect to the application of the United States Sentencing Guidelines:

- (a) As to Count One, Attempted Coercion, the parties agree to take the position that the applicable Guideline is §2G1.3, and that the Base Offense Level ("BOL") is 24; that two-level adjustment applies because Defendant used a computer, pursuant to §2G1.3(b)(3); and that the offense level, before an adjustment for acceptance of responsibility, is therefore 26.
- (b) As to Counts Two and Three, Transportation of Child Pornography, the parties agree to take the position that the applicable Guideline is §2G2.2, and that the BOL is therefore 22; that the following adjustments found in §2G2.2(b) apply: a two-level increase because the material involved a prepubescent minor; a six-level increase because distribution was to a minor that was intended to induce the minor to engage in illegal activity; a two-level increase because the offense involved the use of a computer; and a three-level increase because the offense involved more than 150 and less than 300 images; and therefore that the offense level, before an adjustment for acceptance of responsibility, is 35.

¹The Calculations are based on the Guidelines effective November 1, 2004. Defendant reserves the right to argue that the Guidelines effective November 1, 2003 apply; the government will oppose this argument.

(c) As to Count Four, Possession of Child Pornography, the parties agree to take the position that the applicable Guideline is §2G2.2, and that the BOL is therefore 18; that the following adjustments found in §2G2.2(b) apply: a two-level increase because the material involved a prepubescent minor; a six-level increase because distribution was to a minor that was intended to induce the minor to engage in illegal activity; a two-level increase because the offense involved the use of a computer; a four-level increase because the offense involved material that portrays sadistic or masochistic conduct; and a three-level increase because the offense involved more than 150 and less than 300 images; and therefore that the offense level, before an adjustment for acceptance of responsibility, is 35.

In the event Defendant contends that there is a basis for departure from the otherwise applicable U.S. Sentencing Guideline range based on his medical, mental and/or emotional condition, or otherwise intends to rely on any such condition at sentencing, Defendant will, forthwith upon request, execute all releases and other documentation necessary to permit the U.S. Attorney and his experts (including medical personnel of the Bureau of Prisons) to obtain access to Defendant's medical, psychiatric, and psychotherapeutic records and will also provide to the U.S. Attorney forthwith copies of any such records already in his possession. In addition, Defendant will authorize his care providers to discuss his condition with the U.S. Attorney and his agents (including medical personnel of the Bureau of Prisons), as well as experts retained by the U.S. Attorney. Defendant also agrees to submit to examinations and interviews with experts retained by and chosen by the U.S. Attorney (including medical personnel of the Bureau of Prisons). The U.S. Attorney reserves the right to oppose Defendant's departure argument(s).

Based on Defendant's prompt acceptance of personal responsibility for the offense of conviction in this case, and information known to the U.S. Attorney at this time, the U.S. Attorney agrees to recommend that the Court reduce by three levels Defendant's Adjusted Offense Level under U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1.

The U.S. Attorney specifically reserves the right not to recommend a reduction under U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1 if, at any time between his execution of this Agreement and sentencing Defendant:

- (a) Fails to admit a complete factual basis for the plea;
- (b) Fails to truthfully admit his conduct in the offenses of conviction;
- © Falsely denies, or frivolously contests, relevant conduct for which Defendant is accountable under U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3;
- (d) Fails to provide truthful information about his financial status:

- (e) Gives false or misleading testimony in any proceeding relating to the criminal conduct charged in this case and any relevant conduct for which Defendant is accountable under U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3;
- (f) Engages in acts which form a basis for finding that Defendant has obstructed or impeded the administration of justice under U.S.S.G. § 3C1.1;
- (g) Intentionally fails to appear in Court or violates any condition of release;
- (h) Commits a crime;
- (i) Transfers any asset protected under any provision of this Agreement; and/or
- (j) Attempts to withdraw his guilty plea.

Defendant expressly understands that he may not withdraw his plea of guilty if, for any of the reasons listed above, the U.S. Attorney does not recommend that he receive a reduction in Offense Level for acceptance of responsibility.

Defendant expressly understands that, in addition to declining to recommend an acceptance-of-responsibility adjustment, the Government may seek an upward adjustment pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3C1.1 if Defendant obstructs justice after date of this Agreement.

4. Sentence Recommendation

The U.S. Attorney agrees to recommend the following sentence before the District Court:

- (a) Incarceration or other confinement at the low end of the applicable guideline sentencing range, but, in no event, below any applicable mandatory minimum sentence;
- (b) Fine within the applicable guideline range unless the court finds that Defendant is not able and, even with the use of a reasonable installment schedule, is not likely to become able to pay a fine;
- (c) forfeiture of Defendant's computers, camera and other property identified in the forfeiture allegation of the Indictment;
- (d) A $400 Mandatory special assessment; and
- (e) Supervised release to follow any term of incarceration of not more than five years.

Defendant agrees that he will provide to the U.S. Attorney expert reports, motions, memoranda of law and documentation of any kind on which he intends to rely at sentencing not later than fourteen (14) days before sentencing. Any basis for sentencing with respect to which all expert reports, motions, memoranda of law and documentation have not been provided to the U.S. Attorney at least fourteen (14) days before sentencing shall be deemed waived.

In the event of an appeal from, or collateral challenge to, Defendant's sentence, the U.S. Attorney reserves his right to argue the correctness of Defendant's sentence and the manner in which the District Court determines it.

5. Payment of Mandatory Special Assessment

Defendant agrees to pay the mandatory special assessment to the Clerk of the Court on or before the date of sentencing, unless Defendant establishes to the satisfaction of the Court that Defendant is financially unable to do so.

6. Protection of Assets for Payment of Restitution, Forfeiture and Fine

Defendant agrees not to transfer, or authorize the transfer of any other asset in which he has an interest without prior express written consent of the U.S. Attorney, except for:

- (1) Assets subject to superior, secured interests of innocent third parties, in which Defendant has an equity interest of less than $5,000;
- Ordinary living expenses necessary to house, clothe, transport and feed Defendant and those to whom he owes a legal duty of support, so long as such assets do not exceed $5,000 per month; and
- (3) Attorney's fees incurred in connection with this criminal case.

This prohibition shall be effective as of the date of Defendant's execution of this Agreement and continue until the fine and/or restitution ordered by the Court at sentencing and any tax liability incurred as a result of the conduct charged in the Information are satisfied in full.

Defendant further agrees that, prior to sentencing, he will truthfully and accurately complete the sworn financial statement enclosed with this Agreement.

7. Waiver of Rights to Appeal and to Bring CollateralChallenge

Defendant is aware that he has the right to challenge his sentence and guilty plea on direct appeal. Defendant is also aware that he may, in some circumstances, be able to argue that his plea should be set aside, or his sentence set aside or reduced, in a collateral challenge (such as pursuant to a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255).

In consideration of the concessions made by the U.S. Attorney in this Agreement, Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives his right to appeal or collaterally challenge:

- (1) Defendant's guilty plea and any other aspect of Defendant's conviction, including, but not limited to, any rulings on pretrial suppression motions or any other pretrial dispositions of motions and issues; and
- (2) The imposition by the District Court of a sentence which does not exceed that being recommended by the U.S. Attorney pursuant to this agreement.

Defendant's waiver of rights to appeal and to bring collateral challenges shall not apply to appeals or challenges based on new legal principles in First Circuit or Supreme Court cases decided after the date of this Agreement which are held by the First Circuit or Supreme Court to have retroactive effect.

Defendant's waiver also shall not extend to an appeal or collateral challenge based solely on the argument that the District Court misunderstood the scope of its authority to depart from the applicable Sentencing Guidelines range, where the District Court states on the record at sentencing both its desire to depart and the basis on which it would depart if it had the legal authority to do so.

This Agreement does not affect the rights or obligations of the United States as set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3742(b), and the U.S. Attorney therefore retains his appeal rights.

8. Court Not Bound By Agreement

The sentencing recommendations made by the parties and their respective calculations under the Sentencing Guidelines are not binding upon the U.S. Probation Office or the sentencing judge. Within the maximum sentence which Defendant faces under the applicable law, the sentence to be imposed is within the sole discretion of the sentencing judge. Defendant's plea will be tendered pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(B). Defendant may not withdraw his plea of guilty regardless of what sentence is imposed. Nor may Defendant withdraw his plea because the U.S. Probation Office or the sentencing judge declines to follow the Sentencing Guidelines calculations or recommendations of the parties. In the event that the sentencing judge declines to follow the Sentencing Guidelines calculations or recommendations of the U.S. Attorney, the U.S. Attorney reserves the right to defend the sentencing judge's calculations and sentence in any subsequent appeal or collateral challenge.

9. Forfeiture

Defendant will forfeit to the United States any and all assets subject to forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 2253(a) as a result of his guilty plea. The assets to be forfeited include, but are not limited to, cash, stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, tangible and intangible personal property and real estate.

The assets to be forfeited specifically include, without limitation, the following: two computers identified in the forfeiture allegation of the Indictment, and a Kodak digital camera, model CX4230. Defendant admits that these assets are subject to forfeiture on the grounds that they are property used and intended to be used to commit the offenses charged in the Indictment. Defendant therefore consents to the forfeiture of all of Defendant's interests in all such forfeitable assets to the United States. The forfeitures may be carried out criminally, civilly, or administratively in the government's discretion.

Defendant agrees to assist law enforcement agents and government attorneys in locating, liquidating, recovering, returning to the United States, and forfeiting all forfeitable assets, wherever located, and in whatever names the assets may be held. Defendant shall promptly take whatever steps are deemed necessary by the U.S. Attorney and the Federal Bureau of Investigation to transfer possession of, and clear title to, all forfeitable assets to the United States. Such steps may include, but are not limited to, executing and surrendering all title documents, and signing consent decrees of forfeiture, deeds, sworn statements relating the factual bases for forfeiture, and any other documents deemed necessary by the government to complete the criminal, civil, or administrative forfeiture proceedings which may be brought against the assets identified in this section and against any other forfeitable assets involved in or related to any of the criminal acts charged in the Indictment.

Defendant hereby acknowledges and agrees that the United States is not limited to forfeiture of the assets specifically listed in this section. If the U.S. Attorney determines that any directly forfeitable assets of Defendant cannot be located upon exercise of due diligence, or have been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party, placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, substantially diminished in value, or commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty, then the United States shall be entitled to forfeit as "substitute assets" any other assets of Defendant up to the value of the directly forfeitable assets fitting any of the categories described in this sentence.

In order to assist the United States in locating and forfeiting directly forfeitable and substitute assets, Defendant shall deliver to the U.S. Attorney within thirty days after signing this Agreement a sworn financial statement, executed under the pains and penalties of perjury, fully and truthfully disclosing the existence, nature and location of all assets in which Defendant currently has any legal or beneficial interest, and all assets over which Defendant has exercised control, or has had any legal or beneficial interest, at any time from April 14, 2004 to the present. At the request of the U.S. Attorney, Defendant further agrees to be deposed with respect to Defendant's assets.

Forfeiture of substitute assets shall not be deemed an alteration of Defendant's sentence. The forfeitures set forth herein shall not satisfy or offset any fine, restitution, cost of imprisonment, or other penalty imposed upon Defendant, nor shall the forfeitures be used to offset Defendant's tax liability or any other debt owed to the United States.

In addition to all other waivers or releases set forth in this Agreement, Defendant hereby waives any and all claims arising from or relating to the forfeitures set forth in this section, including, without limitation, any claims arising under the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment, or the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment, to the United States Constitution, or any other provision of state or federal law.

The United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of this section.

Defendant hereby waives and releases any and all claims he may have to any vehicles. currency, or other personal property seized by the United States, or seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and turned over to the United States, during the investigation and prosecution of this case, and consents to the forfeiture of all such assets. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Defendant hereby specifically waives and releases his claims to two computers seized by, or turned over to, the Federal Bureau of Investigation on or about November 10, 2004, as to which, Defendant hereby acknowledges, Defendant received actual notice of administrative or civil judicial forfeiture proceedings.

Defendant agrees to consent to the entry of orders of forfeiture for such property and waives the requirements of Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.2. and 43(a) regarding notice of the forfeiture in the Indictment, announcement of the forfeiture at sentencing, and incorporation of the forfeiture in the judgment. Defendant acknowledges that he understands that the forfeiture of assets is part of the sentence that may be imposed in this case and waives any failure by the Court to advise him of this, pursuant to Rule 11(b)(1)(J), at the time his guilty plea is accepted.

10. Information For Presentence Report

Defendant agrees to provide all information requested by the U.S. Probation Office concerning his assets.

11. Civil Liability

By entering into this Agreement, the U.S. Attorney does not compromise any civil liability, including but not limited to any tax liability, which Defendant may have incurred or may incur as a result of his conduct and his plea of guilty to the charge specified in paragraph one of this Agreement.

12. Rejection of Plea By Court

Should Defendant's guilty plea not be accepted by the Court for whatever reason, or later be withdrawn on motion of Defendant, this Agreement shall be null and void at the option of the U.S. Attorney.

13. Breach of Agreement

If the U.S. Attorney determines that Defendant has failed to comply with any provision of this Agreement, has violated any condition of his pretrial release, or has committed any crime following his execution of this Agreement, the U.S. Attorney may, at his sole option, be released from his commitments under this Agreement in their entirety by notifying Defendant, through counsel or otherwise, in writing. The U.S. Attorney may also pursue all remedies available to him under the law, irrespective of whether he elects to be released from his commitments under this Agreement. Further, the U.S. Attorney may pursue any and all charges which have been, or are to be, dismissed pursuant to this Agreement. Defendant recognizes that no such breach by him of an obligation under this Agreement shall give rise to grounds for withdrawal of his guilty plea. Defendant understands that, should he breach any provision of this agreement, the U.S. Attorney will have the right to use against Defendant before any grand jury, at any trial or hearing, or for sentencing purposes, any statements which may be made by him, and any information, materials, documents or objects which may be provided by him to the government subsequent to this Agreement, without any limitation. In this regard, Defendant hereby waives any defense to any charges which he might otherwise have under any statute of limitations or the Speedy Trial Act.

14. Who Is Bound By Agreement

This Agreement is limited to the U.S. Attorney for the District of Massachusetts, and cannot and does not bind the Attorney General of the United States or any other federal, state or local prosecutive authorities.

15. Complete Agreement

This letter contains the complete and only agreement between the parties relating to the disposition of this case. No promises, representations or agreements have been made other than those set forth in this letter. This Agreement supersedes prior understandings, if any, of the parties, whether written or oral. This Agreement can be modified or supplemented only in a written memorandum signed by the parties or on the record in court.

If this letter accurately reflects the Agreement between the U.S. Attorney and Defendant, please have Defendant sign the Acknowledgment of Agreement below. Please also sign below as Witness. Return the original of this letter to Assistant U.S. Attorney David Hennessy.
